THE POWER OF COMPANIONSHIP:
a lecture and workshop on the psychology of the brother-sister relationship
by Lara Newton

February 18 at 7 p.m. and February 19 from 10 am to 3 pm Center for Spiritual Living, 600 N Curtis, Boise

“At this point in history, we must remember that there is power, not only in conflict and discord, but also in harmony and equanimity.”

In a book she worked on for over a decade, Lara Newton lays the foundation for a new psychological perspective on the brother-sister relationship, and opens us to an inner dimension that teaches us the power of companionship. Please join us for a lecture and workshop in which Lara will introduce us to a psychological exploration of that relationship, both externally in the inter-personal and cultural worlds and internally in the relationship between conscious and unconscious, masculine and feminine.

Lara Newton, M.A., L.P.C. is a diplomate Jungian Analyst in private practice in Denver, Colorado. She is Coordinator of Training for the C.G. Jung Institute of Colorado, and has been president of the Jung Society of Colorado since 1995. Her first book, Brothers and Sisters: discovering the psychology of companionship, was published by Spring Journal Books in May 2007. She has published journal articles on feminine psychology and on mythological studies.
